We live in a world that entices us to indulge in sensual pleasures, to strive to elevate ourselves, and to do what it takes to protect our own personal rights and liberties. In such a culture, it is difficult to follow Christ humbly and selflessly. Perhaps because of our shared love for entertainment at the cost of others dignity, increasing disrespect for life, and common belief that each of us exists as a god unto ourselves, the message found in Paul s letter to the Romans resonates deeply. It meddles with our desire to seek comfort and security and spurs our faith on as we fix our eyes on Jesus where we find an endless supply of God s grace. Fifty-two days of Grace is a collection of devotionals that will challenge, encourage, and exhort today s 21st Century Christian using the truth from God s Word found in Romans. Each devotional is designed to supplement your own study of God s Word with the hope that you will grow closer in your walk with Christ.
