Remembrances From The Heart is a beautifully illustrated and spiritually driven compilation of heartfelt eulogies and poems. These works honor the deceased, as well as comfort the living. The Author captures in words those unspoken emotions that are expressed at times of loss and grief. Recommended for Funerals, Memorials, Honorable Dedications and more, this book is also useful for educators, ministers, motivational speakers, and simply for the pleasure of reading a book that brings praise and glory to God! The reader can find a connection to their loved ones by choosing a passage from this treasured book. The messages are timeless. Vicki Valeen Johnson, is a 4th generation born and raised Texan. She was raised by her Grandmother, noted Texas Poet, Ruth Christine Johnson. At a very early age, Vicki would sit on a pallet of blankets under shade trees and rhyme words together with her grandmother, and they would create poems from the heart. Vicki was brought up in Church, and was taught the true essence of how to love. Her upbringing and household either encompassed...
