Excerpt: Bergen (Norwegian pronunciation:) is the second largest city in Norway with a population of 261,500 as of April 16, 2011. Bergen is the administrative centre of Hordaland county. Greater Bergen or Bergen Metropolitan Area as defined by Statistics Norway, has a population of 386,600 as of April 16, 2011. Bergen is located in the county of Hordaland on the south-western coast of Norway. It is an important cultural hub in its region, recognized as the unofficial capital of Western Norway and sometimes also referred to as the Atlantic coast capital of Norway. The city was one of nine European cities honoured with the title of European Capital of Culture in the Millennium year. The city of Bergen, traditionally thought to have been founded by king Olav Kyrre,...
