You never get a second chance to make a first impression. Unfortunately many new managers make easily preventable mistakes that sabotage their ability to lead others well. This book is focused on helping you build the correct mindset to succeed and grow in the job. You will be able to read the entire book in one weekend, and become a better manager by Monday morning. Inside you will find the ten most common errors that new managers make. You will learn about the 7 neurotic blocks to effectiveness that prevent new managers or first time managers from succeeding. And you will learn the 10 key performance metrics that will be your benchmark for leadership success. Get started on the right foot by learning how to lead in a way that is going to create engaged and productive employees.
