For those traders who have read Gann's books or studied his Trading Courses the name of W. D. Gann and his accomplishments are well known. For the others, a brief outline of his record should prove interesting. Gann is considered to be one of the most successful commodity traders in history. In a career that spanned over 50 years, he is supposed to have taken 50 million dollars out of the stock and commodity markets. The accuracy of these figures cannot be verified but it is known that Mr. Gann lived quite well for his time. There were several magazine and newspaper articles that described his accomplishments. One observer watched Gann make 286 stock transactions during the month of October 1909. Of those trades, 264 or 92 were profitable. On another occasion, he turned a 130 account into 12,000 in less than a month. He had the ability to call a market turn within one day and highs and lows to an eighth of a point. All of these claims are a matter of public record. Gann's trading philosophy can be described in his own words: Through the law of vibration every stock and commodity in the marketplace moves in its own distinctive sphere of activities, as to intensity, volume and direction; all the essential qualities of its evolution is characterized in its own rate of vibration. Stocks and commodities, like atoms, are really centers of energies, therefore they are controlled mathematically. They create their own field of action and power; power to attract and repel, which explains why certain stocks and commodities at times lead the market and turn dead at other times. Thus to speculate...
