Congressional Sales Office, 2001. OCLC Number: (OCOLOC)48886134 Subject: United States -- Armed Forces -- Environmental aspects. Excerpt: . . . 7 For the most part, the military's answer to encroachment challenges has been to work around the immediate problems while attempting to minimize the impact on the quality and quantity of training but the cumulative impact of this stop gap approach is not being addressed. The previous administration studied these issues but made no real proposals for long term solutions. These problems are affecting the ability of our forces to fight and this administration needs to tackle this problem before it gets out of control. We will be reporting what is said at this hearing to the President and the administration to make sure they are aware of all the concerns of the people who are in the military who are leading our fighting forces. In 1999 at the Citadel, President Bush said, The military must improve the quality of training. Shortfalls on...

Reviews

An extremely wonderful pdf with perfect and lucid information. Better than never, though I am quite late in starting reading this one. Once you begin to read the book, it is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding.

This publication will be worth purchasing. It is written in straightforward words and not hard to understand. I am just very happy to explain how here is the best ebook we have read in my own lifestyle and might be the best publication for at any time.
