On a dark night, Marek the ferret sniffs each hole, searching for a particular scent—that of prairie dog pups. Logan, A Prairie Dog: Springtime Adventures in a Wish-Ton-Wish Borough follows Logan, an adolescent prairie dog, as he encounters a season filled with deadly threats from predators and the forces of nature yet somehow maintains his natural playfulness and love of life. A lost Pre-Columbian world comes alive with each page turn from the chatter of prairie dogs, the snorting of bison, and the occasional screech of a hawk. Readers will learn, along with Logan and his new friend Adrian the chipmunk, that distinguishing between friend and foe is not always easy.
