Eric Donald Hackley, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book seeks to add enlightenment to the mystery of how to solve the age old dilemma that s been plaguing the Black community since the inception of American Colonization and Black Subjugation. According to the infamous 1712 Slave Owner Willie Lynch myth (or reality) letter, after 300 years of uninterrupted Let s Make a Slave behavioral conditioning, Blacks beginning in 2012 will enter into a BRAND NEW ERA of self-induced, generational self-refueling slave mentality that will last forever, unless it encounters some substantial original historic base such as what we have described in this book. Kekionga Blacks administer a proven Old Indian Cure to remedy the divide and conquer mentality of early American Terrorism concerned the removal of Indians from this land (Indiana) and the psychological Slave breaking quandary still impacting the mindsets of many of today s American Black people. This cure has been metaphorically obscured within the hidden history of Kekionga ever since the arrival of Major General Mad Anthony Wayne back in 1794 when Kekionga was officially renamed Fort Wayne. Today s Kekionga Black Warriors re-apply this Indian War Tactic and use it to defeat, dismantle and destroy Willie Lynch and the corresponding psychological reign of unchecked, out of control historic Slave Mentality indoctrination. Kekionga Blacks profiled in this book have applied this warrior spirited mentality to all personal social, psychological and economic problems without seeking or requesting prior permission or approval from any ethnic leaders, including the negro elite. Kekionga Black Warriors are no longer content to remain passive spectators by sitting back waiting for Jesus, Martin Luther King or President Obama to save the day for the Black Community. Kekionga...
